

MENTORSHIP FOR COVID-19

Operation CORE is a one-on-one mentorship nonprofit run by Harvard undergraduates for middle and high school students. Our mission is to fundraise for communities impacted by COVID-19.

OUR PROGRAMS

Our mentors are trained Harvard undergraduates, and we have devoted intensive efforts in developing curricula, how-to guides, and handouts.

College Mentorship

- Common Application Walkthroughs
- College Essay Brainstorming & Editing
- General Strategy Sessions

Standardized Test Prep

- Individualized test prep support
- ACT
- SAT
- SAT Subject Tests

Academic Tutoring

- Math (geometry, algebra, trigonometry, calculus, etc.)
- Science (biology, chemistry, physics, etc.)
- English, history, languages

DONATIONS

All proceeds go toward Operation CORE's Community Relief Fund, which supports Stand For Children and the Asian Community Development Corporation's COVID-19 Emergency Relief Fund.

College Mentorship

- $50 for 1 session (plus $30 to access our entire College Mentorship Curriculum)
- $120, $200, or $320 for 3, 5, or 8 sessions (plus free first consultation and College Mentorship Curriculum)

Standardized Test Prep & Academic Tutoring

- $40/hour flat rate

(Stated amounts are minimums. Larger donations are greatly appreciated.)

REGISTER/CONTACT US!

↑ www.operationcore.com

✉ harvard.operation.core@gmail.com